

UNITED STATES CONGRESS RECOGNIZED DR. SAM OSMANAGICH

Discoverer of the Bosnian Pyramids and businessman from Houston, Bosnian-born American author and researcher Dr. Sam Osmanagich, Ph.D. has received United States Congressional Certificate of Recognition on May 24th, 2013 by distinguished U.S. Congresswoman Sheila Lee Jackson.

He was recognized “for continuous support in promoting cultural and economic independence for people new to the United States of America.” Congresswoman Sheila Lee Jackson underlined that “Osmanagich’s commitment to the community is truly worth of respect, admiration and commendation of the United States Congress.”

Certificate was dated May 24, 2013, stamped by the House of Representatives and signed by Congresswoman Jackson.

Dr. Osmanagich received Certificate during the gala dinner at Westin Galeria hotel in Houston in front of City and County Council persons, County and Municipal judges, President of the University of Houston, media and other public figures.

During the ceremony, Osmanagich also received an honor “Stars Among Us” for his community service and career’s achievements. This honor is traditionally given by the Alliance for Multicultural Community Services from Houston. Alliance has been serving refugees, immigrants and Houston’s low income residents since 1985. Osmanagich served as a voluntarily member of the Alliance’s Board of Directors in a period 1995-2005. First honoree “Stars Among Us” was legendary “Houston Rockets” basketball player Hakeem Olayuwoon (Nigeria) in 1999.
